Key Takeaways

Brownrig Supplies, FBP Malta, ESS Electrical Supplies, and Hydroelectric are key suppliers of cable trays in Malta, offering options suitable for fire protection applications. Key Suppliers in Malta

1. Brownrig Supplies Direct Ltd. Brownrig Supplies is a leading supplier of mechanical and electrical products in Malta, including galvanized steel cable trays suitable for industrial and commercial installations. Their central location in the harbour area facilitates storage and distribution for large projects, making them a reliable source for fire-rated or heavy-duty cable trays . 2. FBP Malta FBP Malta provides a range of cable trays and mesh trays, which are commonly used for electrical installations requiring organized and protected cable routing. Their products are suitable for environments where fire safety and cable management are critical . 3. ESS Electrical Supplies and Services Limited ESS is a well-established electrical supplier in Malta, offering a wide range of cables, cable management systems, and accessories. They have been involved in major local projects, including commercial, residential, and industrial developments, and can provide technical advice on selecting fire protection cable trays that comply with safety standards . 4. Hydroelectric Ltd. Hydroelectric specializes in electrical solutions and cable management products, including cable trays for various applications. They supply products suitable for both overhead and floor installations, which can be adapted for fire-rated requirements .

Considerations for Fire Protection Cable Trays

- Material: Galvanized steel or coated metal trays are preferred for fire resistance.
- Compliance: Ensure trays meet local fire safety regulations and standards.
- Installation: Proper spacing, supports, and separation from combustible materials are essential for fire-rated performance.
- Supplier Support: Companies like ESS and Brownrig can provide technical guidance and project-specific recommendations. For sourcing fire protection cable trays in Malta, contacting these suppliers directly will allow you to confirm availability, fire-rating certifications, and customization options for your project.
